

MARIA STARKOVA

Maria Starkova-Vindman received her MA from the Courtauld Institute of Art and a PhD from Moscow State University in Italian Renaissance art history. She has long been engaged in the field of Russian art which is her very strong interest. Having previously worked at the Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts in Moscow and assisted in teaching a contemporary art course at the Courtauld Institute, Dr Starkova-Vindman is currently working on her new PhD project on early Soviet art at the Courtauld Institute. Her dissertation focuses on the image of the Child as pioneer of the USSR (1922-1941).